Dear Parents/Carers,

We are writing to remind you about our home-school reading books in Year 6. At St Giles we follow the Oxford Reading Tree/Treetops scheme for home-school reading books, which we are sending home each week with your child's Reading Diary. If your child has reached the highest stage in this scheme, they may bring a 'free-reader' book home with them instead. The children may also choose a book or a magazine from our class library to expand their wider reading and encourage reading for pleasure. In addition to this, each child has access to a large catalogue of online reading books, through Oxford Reading Buddy and Serial Mash - logins will be attached to each child's Reading Diary.

Please note that your child's books should be changed at least twice a week, depending on the size and difficulty of the book. We ask that you encourage your child to read for 30 mins every day – perhaps over breakfast, during a long car journey or as part of the bed time routine. It would also benefit them to read aloud to an adult to practice pronunciation, encourage confidence and to discuss their understanding of the text.

Also within your child's Reading Diary is a target for you to focus on when you read together. When your child has finished reading their book, it would be useful if you could write a comment and include any words they have found difficult (using the vocabulary section found at the bottom of each page). There are a variety of responses that you could include such as comments on their understanding of the story, what they liked/disliked about the book and their overall fluency. If you are unsure of what to include, make a general comment, such as 'great reading' or 'found it hard this week' and sign your name. For any more advice on this please do not hesitate to ask any member of Year 6 staff.

Year 6 is an extremely important year group, where children are working towards their SATs tests and thinking about moving on to secondary school. Practising reading more often will develop their vocabulary and improve confidence and understanding across all areas of the curriculum, as well as English.

Many thanks for your ongoing support with reading.

Article 28 (right to education) Every child has the right to an education. Primary education must be free and different forms of secondary education must be available to every child. Discipline in schools must respect children's dignity and their rights. Richer countries must help poorer countries achieve this.

Article 29 (goals of education) Education must develop every child's personality, talents and abilities to the full. It must encourage the child's respect for human rights, as well as respect for their parents, their own and other cultures, and the environment.
