

'You must love one another as I have loved you.' John 13 v 34.

Working together with love we will provide a happy and nurturing environment where all will, 'learn to love and love to learn', making outstanding progress through an enriched and creative curriculum. Through our strong Christian ethos we will celebrate and embrace the richness of our community.

Learn to Love - Love to Learn

Home Learning

Please visit your child's Google Classroom Class Page to access Home Learning.

Pupil Logins can be found at the front of all Reading Diaries.

If you are having difficulties accessing please do let your child's Class Teacher know.

The school has invested in a range of Online Learning which are FREE for all to access. Resources including IXL, Purple Mash, Maths Watch, Oxford Reading Buddy and TT Rock Stars. Further information will be available at the planned Meet and Greet sessions which start next week.

I hope to see as many parents as possible over the next four weeks.

Article 31 (leisure, play and culture) Every child has the right to relax, play and take part in a wide range of cultural and artistic activities.

Article 29 (goals of education) Education must develop every child's personality, talents and abilities to the full. It must encourage the child's respect for human rights, as well as respect for their parents, their own and other cultures, and the environment.
